HARC LOOKING FOR MUSICIANS FOR EXPRESSION OF FAITH THROUGH MUSIC

HARC's Spirituality Committee is inviting groups or individual musicians who express their faith through music to participate in a "Celebration of the Spirit" concert. The nondenominational evening event, which will be free and open to the public, will be held on Saturday, October 16, at Herkimer County Community College's Sarkus Busch Theater.

HARC's Spirituality Committee works to provide opportunities for participation for persons with developmental and other disabilities, along with their families, in meaningful spiritual activities.

According to Tammy Helmer-Bergen, HARC Spirituality coordinator, the musical talent can be choirs, bands, instrumentalists, soloists, etc. Anyone can contribute music that has a spiritual message. The number of selections from each group will depend on the number participating in the concert.

Musicians interested in contributing their talent should contact Helmer-Bergen by Friday, June 25th by calling: (315) 574-7850 or e-mailing: tbergen@herkimerarc.org.

HARC provides services to over 600 participants in Day Programs, Health Services, Residential (24-hour homes), Respite and Recreational Services, Senior Center, Career Connections, Valley Commons, Herkimer Industries, the Goodwill-HARC Store & Donation Center, and Transportation. For more information regarding HARC, visit www.herkimerarc.org or call (315) 574-7000.
